

One of the most exciting duos to emerge from the UK in recent times, Kit Hawes & Aaron Catlow combine heartfelt musicality, unparalleled virtuosity and vocal harmony. Using the folk music of the British Isles as a catalyst, Kit and Aaron create dynamic and effervescent interpretations of centuries-old material as well as original songs and compositions, all the while celebrating the timeless aural quality of a guitar, fiddle and vocals duet.

Studio albums The Fox (2016) and Pill Pilots (2019) have been met by wide critical acclaim, receiving five star reviews and local and national airplay. The duo tour extensively in the UK and internationally across Belgium, the Netherlands and Germany. BBC 2's Mark Radcliffe is a champion of their work, saying "Kit and Aaron are reminiscent of the late Dave Swarbrick and Martin Carthy... I can give them no higher accolade. They deserve to be thought of as amongst the best".

"Fleet fingered and ingeniously arranged.deserve to be thought of as up there with the best of them" – Songlines

"At the top of their game" Mark Radcliff, BBC Radio 2

"Such dexterity, energy and passion.....mightily impressive" - R2 Magazine
